

The Cornubian and

Redruth Times, Friday,

February 18 1898

The remains of Mrs Bawden, aged 68, who died at Church lane, Illogan, were interred at the churchyard on Saturday, those present included Mrs Hy. Bawden, Mrs P. Bawden (daughters-in-law, Camborne), Messrs H. Bawden, T. Bawden, A. P. Bawden (sons), and Master Bawden. The Rev. H. Oxland officiated. The arrangements were made by Mr John Penberthy.—Mr Bawden was ill in bed at the time his wife died: he has since been removed to his son's house.

A correspondent notices with regret that Illogan funerals of late have been sparsely attended.