He was missed during the forenoon and Sheriff George R. Carter notified. A search for the man was continued by his sheriff, Superintendent Rodda of the hospital and others, but without avail.

This morning members of the American Legion will assemble at the hospital and a thorough search of the surrounding section will be made. Commander McKinley Lotz of Hagler-Thomas-Hegarty Post asks every member of the post to meet at the hospital at 9 o'clock this morning to assist in the search.
